<sup>1</sup> Docket No. CP2015-62, Notice of the United States Postal Service of Filing Modification Three to Global Expedited Package Services 3 Negotiated Service Agreement, July 6, 2016; Docket No. CP2015-63, Notice of the United States Postal Service of Filing Modification Two to Global Expedited Package Services 3 Negotiated Service Agreement, July 6, 2016; Docket No. CP2015-64, Notice of the United States Postal Service of Filing Modification Two to Global Expedited Package Services 3 Negotiated Service Agreement, July 6, 2016 (collectively "Modifications").

<sup>2</sup> Docket No. CP2015-62, Motion of the United States Postal Service for Temporary Relief Concerning Global Expedited Package Services Negotiated Service Agreement, June 23, 2016; Docket No. CP2015-63, Motion of the United States Postal Service for Temporary Relief Concerning Global Expedited Package Services Negotiated Service Agreement, June 23, 2016; Docket No. CP2015-64, relief from the Commission based on a gap in contract coverage created by the expiration of the existing agreements and the approval of the successor agreements. The Commission granted the Motions for Temporary Relief.<sup>3</sup>

The Modifications filed by the Postal Service subject to this Notice set forth identical terms to those already approved by the Commission. Therefore, as the Commission granted the Postal Service's Motions for Temporary Relief and approved the successor agreements referred to in the Modifications, no further action is necessary. In future notices of this nature, the Postal Service should state in its notice whether it is requesting any relief or action by the Commission.
